Talking Child Did Not Disturb
Justice Barnes has got on the right side of one mother in this county. This is from the Oxford Democrat:

"Judge Barnes likes to have order in the court room and noise irritates him. This became well known during the term. On one of the cases there was a woman witness, who had a young baby with her. This baby, as is the way with infants, had no awe of courts, and no knowledge of court procedure, and consequently 'spoke right out in meeting' whenever the fancy seized him. It annoyed the mother and she did everything a woman would to still the child. The judge noticed this and told the woman not to try to quiet the baby. 'I would rather hear a child talk,' he said, 'than any witness in court.'"

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kimball, son Ivan and daughter, Lucie, of Albany, were Sunday guests of Verna Kimball.

Mr. Libby of the Central Maine Power Advertising Department of Augusta was in town, Tuesday. He came to Poland to vote and then to Norway to visit his grandfather who lives on Cottage street.

Don't forget that we have a nice line of Greeting Cards for the holidays. Come in early and make selection. No trouble to show them. Don't delay.

Aaron E. Cox, who resides on the Canwell place, Water street, has made extensive improvements the past year. The house has been raised on a new underpinning of stone and cement. Extensive grading has been done over the lots and numerous fruit trees and shrubs set out. Next summer Mr. Cox expects to have a fine lawn when grass seed gets a good start.

William Dexter Kelley, better known as Tom Kelley, who spent his boyhood days on Whitman street, is in town. He has roamed through the west and seen a bit of the world, but returned for a visit. General work has been good, so he may remain for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bumpus of Madison, Conn., are visiting his brother, John N. Bumpus and wife. Mr. Bumpus left Norway about fifty years ago, but came back for a visit some thirteen years ago. He has found sweeping changes in the village, with only a few familiar landmarks to arouse early recollections.

George E. Philbrook of Newburyport, Mass., is here this week, called by the serious illness of his father, who lives with his sister, Mrs. Fred Wheeler, at South Paris. He is also visiting his father-in-law, John N. Bumpus, on Water street, for some years, following the big fire in '94.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowe, Jr., of Saco and Olga Hanson of Portland were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowe, Oct. 30.

Frank P. Stone, the druggist, returned Wednesday, from a pleasure trip to Indianapolis. He visited his son, Carl Stone and wife and had a mighty fine time.

Children's Night at Mt. Hope Rebekah Lodge was observed Friday evening when a "Hallowe'en" party with music, games and refreshments was given to a large number of young people. One pleasing feature was a huge bundle deposited in the center of the group when a string was pulled each guest selected a favor to be worn during the remainder of the evening.

NORWAY MUNICIPAL COURT
Wm. F. Jones, Judge

On complaint of Highway Police Geo. W. Wood, G. W. Sawyer of Portland appeared in court, Friday, and pleaded guilty to reckless driving. He paid a fine of $20.

Deputy sheriff W. L. Buck was complainant in the action against George Greenwood of Hartford, charged with assault and intent to kill. Probable cause was found and he was bound over in the sum of $500. Justice C. P. Barnes of the Supreme Judicial Court committed him to the State Hospital at Augusta for observation.

Norman Jodrey of Bethel pleaded not guilty of drunken driving. Probable cause was found and he was bound over in the sum of $1,000, sureties were Henry S. Jodrey and James Wiles of Bethel.

On complaint of Sheriff W. O. Frothingham, the respondent was charged with transporting liquor without a Federal permit and fined $300. On appeal, the bail was fixed at $1,000 with the same sureties. A Buick roadster was confiscated by the County.

Wm. Kneeland, formerly of this town, now of South Paris, has finished his work as mason tender with Allie Estes. He has worked on the job all summer.

Drill night at the armory, Tuesday evening was moving time when the boys of Co. C sacked part of the furniture and equipment down one flight of stairs to Legion Hall, which they will occupy. Few ever realized they had so much stuff.

The American Legion moved their headquarters to Moose Hall over Stone's Pharmacy, Monday. Some of their furniture has been stored for the present.

Frank Gammon, who at one time worked for P. Wilson Walker, but recently from Auburn, has opened the Dr. Barker stable and is to do a lively business. He has six horses.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fletcher were in Portland, Wednesday.

It is reported the condition of Walter S. Butters is not much improved. On Wednesday he appeared some better than on several preceding days but his condition is serious.

Colby H. Robinson of Bingham entered upon his official duties, Monday, as manager of Rex Theatre. He has experience in the game as proprietor of the Kennebec Theatre the past five years and paid his way through Bowdoin College from the profits of the show. He was graduated in 1923. Mr. Robinson is a hustler and likes the town for its indications of thrift and good fellowship.

Old Landmark Destroyed by Fire
The main house and el at the John Parsons farm on Hill street, one of the oldest buildings in Norway village were burned together with the contents, Saturday forenoon. A defective chimney is supposed to have started the fire. Chief Giles Frost with a number of men from the department made a quick run in automobiles and by the time the fire was prevented from spreading into the woods. The house was more than a century old and burned like tinder.

For some time the buildings had been unoccupied, but the furnishings representing rare family heirlooms were in place as left by the late Joe Parsons who died in the spring of 1923.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howe of South Paris recently leased the farm and had been a short time and just moved in their household goods. So quickly did the flames spread that they saved practically nothing.

The buildings have been of local historical interest for they were erected by one of the early settlers of Rustfield, now Norway, and the title had ever since remained in the family.

Miss Bertha Brown of Medford, Mass., visited her aunt, Mrs. Freeland Howe, a few days last week.

Obituary

Mrs. Cora E. Russell

Mrs. Cora E. Russell passed away, Wednesday, Oct. 22, at her home in Norway. She was born in Washburn, the daughter of the late Simon and Harriet (Hall) Brown.

In 1883 she married Joseph Russell of Randolph, N. H., where she lived for several years. Five children were born to this union, two of whom died in infancy, and Alma, the wife of George Thompson of Norway who died April 13, 1907, and two who survive, Rosie, the wife of Geo. Babin of South Paris, and William H. Russell of Whitefield, N. H. She came to Norway 21 years ago where she has since made her home.

Besides her immediate family, she leaves her mother and one brother, William E. Brown of Coalinga, Calif., and two sisters, Mrs. Florence Estey of Charleston, Mass., and Mrs. Elmina Outhouse of California, and two grandchildren, Raymond Babin of South Paris, and Eleanor C. Russell of Whitefield, N. H.

The funeral was held at her late home, Saturday, Oct. 25, at 2 P. M., Rev. Nelson P. Pearson officiating. Interment at Pine Grove cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful, showing the esteem in which she was held. The bearers were Eugene Lebrun, Homer McKay, Elwin Russell and P. F. Stone.

Miss Allie S. Crockett
Word has been received of the death in Marietta, Ga., of Miss Allie S. Crockett, a former resident of Norway. She was the daughter of the late Ephraim S. and Sarah Penley Crockett, and the family lived in Norway for many years on the corner of Danforth and Main streets where the Dr. Hasty house now stands. There were nine children, and Miss Allie and two younger sisters carried on a millinery business for many years. At one time their store was located where the S. W. Godwin insurance office now is.

About 35 years ago three sisters, Miss Allie, Miss Ella and Miss Louise, and a brother, Warren E., went to Georgia. The two sisters passed away many years ago, and the brother lived until a few years ago. Miss Crockett was born Nov. 12, 1850. She suffered a shock a few years ago and has been gradually failing. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Abbie J. Tubbs, Norway, and one brother, Edgar L., who lives in Missouri.

SMALL GRAVEYARDS IN PARIS

By F. A. Briggs
About one and one-half miles from Paris Hill on the country road to Buckfield on the farm now owned by Oliver Croteau is what is known as "The Whittemore Yard." It is well walled and fairly well taken care of.

Isaiah Whittemore, son of Samuel of Hebron, was born February 15, 1785, and married November 30, 1809, Abigail Ripley, daughter of Gideon Bearce of Hebron and settled on the farm where this yard is located. He was known as "Tanner Whittemore" as he ran a tannery on the farm. He was a deputy sheriff and also held town office. He had a family of four sons and six daughters. The inscription on his stone is:

Isaiah Whittemore
Died
May 7, 1864
A.E. 79 yrs. 2 ms.

Abigail Ripley, wife of Isaiah Whittemore, was born in 1790. The inscription on her stone is:

Abby
Died
Aug. 23, 1867
A.E. 77

Abigail Ripley, daughter of Isaiah Whittemore, was born in Paris, October 3, 1819, and married Alanson Briggs of Lawrence, Mass. She is buried in this yard. The inscription on her stone is:

Abby
Died
Oct. 17, 1864
A.E. 44 yrs. 4 mo. 14 d.

Gershom Cole, grandson of Joseph of Plymouth, married Polly, daughter of Joseph Bessey, and settled in the Whittemore District. He had a family of six sons and four daughters. His stone bears the inscription:

Gershom Cole
Died
Mar. 16, 1859
A.E. 77 yrs. 2 ms.

The inscription on his wife's stone is:

Polly
Died
Sept. 19, 1853
A.E. 68 yrs. 2 ms.

Albion Augustus Whittemore, son of Isaiah, was born in Paris, November 15, 1810, married Sophia, daughter of Gershom Cole and settled near the homestead. He was a blacksmith by trade. He had a family of eight sons and six daughters. His stone in this yard bears the inscription:

Albion A. Whittemore
Died
June 10, 1862
A.E. 51 yrs. 9 ms.

Sophia wife of Albion Whittemore, was the daughter of Gershom Cole. She was born in Paris, October 9, 1814. After her husband died she remained on the home farm and raised the family of small children, the youngest being at the time of Mr. Whittemore's death, but two years old. The inscription on her stone is:

MOTHER
Sophia Cole
Died
Oct. 6, 1814-Dec. 3, 1892
A.E. 78 yrs. 2 ms.

Isaiah A., son of Albion and Sophia Whittemore, was born in Paris March 16, 1841. He was never married but died at home. The inscription on this stone is:

Isaiah A.
Died
Oct. 14, 1864
A.E. 23 yrs. 7 ms.

(This stone is out of the setting but whole it stands against the fence.)
A stone in this yard bears the inscription:

Jennie E.

EDUCATION WEEK

Governor Percival P. Baxter has proclaimed Nov. 17-23 to be observed as Education Week, and urges the citizens to give proper consideration to the needs of our schools, their teachers and children.

Education is the foundation of true progress. The horizon of the illiterate man is narrow and limited, while that of the educated is almost boundless. Broad fields of enjoyment and usefulness, which widen as one acquires further knowledge, are open to those who have acquired knowledge.

As for our own State of Maine we have made great progress in education in the past few years. In the period of the last decade the value of school property has increased from $13,620,000 to over $20,000,000; the annual school support from $6,400,000 to $10,300,000; more than 500 school buildings having been constructed or reconstructed and made modern; the salary of teachers has increased on an average of more than 30 per cent; and the number of students in our Normal Schools has grown from 600 to 1100. These figures represent but a small part of what has been accomplished.

The American Legion and National State Department in this movement for Americanism.

An old, old story is about a man who had a muscular wife who had a mind and will of her own. A circus came to town and one evening a bear broke its cage and ran amuck. The man was seated on the porch and his wife was in the back yard gathering the clothes off the clothes line. A neighbor ran over and said excitedly: "A grizzly bear has just climbed over the back fence where your wife is." The man reading the paper scarcely looked up. "The bear has only itself to blame," he said.

Norway and Vicinity

Musical Comedy, "The Isle O' Smiles"
"The Isle O' Smiles," one of the Philbrook Productions staged by B. O. Shields, practically filled the Norway Opera House, Thursday and Friday evenings. Aside from Mr. Shields the cast numbering about one hundred people was selected from talent in Norway and South Paris, the majority being volunteers. The shoe factory and high school contributed a large quota.

As the show was under the auspices of the Twin Towns Baseball Association, both communities turned out to make the receipts large and put the comedy across for a winner.

Without question "The Isle O' Smiles" is one of the most pleasing musical shows within reach of amateur talent. The plot is light, the lines witty and interspersed with catchy song numbers. Some excellent group dances were introduced with colorful costumes the general rule. Lighting effects and the spot are used to advantage.

The show was staged within three weeks time. Harold A. Anderson had the performers engaged ready for the director and the rehearsals have whirled merrily along.

The story centers around one Wellington McDowell (Paul Hosmer) who under estimated the kick in his drinks while enjoying a night out. In court he was sentenced to thirty days in jail on "The Isle O' Smiles." Striving to free the predicament from his wife, he framed an alibi for the enforced absence by a trip to California. Colonel Breeze (Stephen Brannen) was his accomplice but the tight squeezes both went through during the thirty days were a caution yet all ended well.

Numerous side characters were sandwiched into the plot but it was left with "Aunt Caroline," (Alice Lewis) a prim old maid with whom the skits, and "Perceval Lunk," (Jake Andrews) the eccentric sheriff, to furnish comedy stunts and keep the audience in an uproar. Miss Lewis had a good line of local chatter and of course "Jake" was a scream whenever he popped his red head through the wings. Comedy is one of his best holds and in this character he found a broad highway for speeding.

All parts were well carried out even down the line to Master "Buddie" Glidden, the colored kid in the climax of the first act.

Miss Emma West's voice was especially pleasing, and the dancing and vocal work of Mrs. Eva Evers proved as effective. Irving Joslin and Miss Helen Kenyon in a double number that included a duet and dancing drew loud applause.

The pair danced over a table in nimble style.

B. O. Shields and Miss Della Holt in a tango dance provided an act acceptable to the patrons and carried away honors in that department of the show.

Albert Quinby as "Warden Young" of the prison, had a tender heart, more particularly for the spinsters, and who who captivated him in the second act and landed solid. Their love making was brief but to the point. How could the maiden lady resist the hero in blue coat and brass buttons with Chesterfield manners.

Cast of characters is as follows:
Wellington McDowell, who has made a night of it..... Paul Hosmer
Colonel Breeze, his friend and adviser..... Stephen Brannen
Aunt Caroline..... Alice Lewis
Warden Young..... Albert Quinby
Jenkins, a Butler..... Earl Shields
Amasa Whooch, a Justice of the Peace..... Ralph Andrews
Fervical Pennington Lunk, a sheriff..... Helen Kenyon
Natalie..... Eva Evers
Polly, her sister..... Betty, a soloist..... Gladden
Aunt Caroline..... Della Holt
Colored Kid..... Buddie

Of course the principals had numerous song hits and chorus girls beautifully costumed stepped gracefully to the catchy music. Groups of little girls went through their act like veterans.

The show was carried along by an orchestra comprising Miss Helen Evers, piano; Alfred Coffey, violin; Frank P. Knapp, trumpet and George Soper, drums. Miss Ruth Akers assisted at the piano during afternoon rehearsals.

Without exception the program went with a snap and all cues were taken promptly due in a large measure to the efficient matrons, Mrs. B. G. McIntire, Mrs. Charles Bartlett, Mrs. J. W. Waite and Mrs. H. A. Anderson. They were in charge of the children and assisted the chorus girls in their several changes of costume.

Terrible accident! A bottle of alcohol was dropped on the cement sidewalk the night of the Firemen's Ball, and broken. A katzenkuehn oil for deafness, some of the growing of hair on bald places. One dollar per half pint jar. Sure cure! A slick traveling man so guarantees. He has recently worked the village and got some money. We know of two who made purchases and are to watch the hair grow and see crooked joints become straight.

The date of the Methodist Fair has been changed to Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 12 and 13 instead of Nov. 11 and 12. The change has been made on account of Armistice Day. The sale will open Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, continuing through the evening. At 8 o'clock a free entertainment will be given by local talent. Lunch will be on sale during the evening. A dinner will be served Thursday noon.

Mrs. O. A. Burgess of Andover is visiting her son "Jack" Burgess. She has been visiting relatives in Sanford, Jay, Farmington and at Falmouth. At the latter place she stopped with Charles Snell, who was brought up in her family.

The past season has not been what is called a "beechnut" year. Few beech trees have borne nuts. Mrs. Joseph Larry, at Round Pond, found only two trees with nuts. She gathered, she told, presented us with a pint jar full.

Election item: Willie Leavitt was the only severely patriotic man on the street. He raised a flag on election day.

It is expected a union Thanksgiving service for Norway and South Paris will be held at the Norway Congregational Church, Sunday evening, Nov. 23, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. N. B. Pearson will preach. Young people's societies in the Twin Towns will be invited to meet with the Christian Endeavorers at 6:30 in a special service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana F. Brown of Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. William Kelley, Clifford Neal of Bangor and Miss Winnie Sawyer of Auburn were week end guests of Mrs. Frelaud Howe at her home on Pleasant Street.

Norway Advertiser

Clergymen Mistaken for Rum Runners
Is there anything about Rev. Olin B. Tracy and his Studebaker roadster to suggest rum-running? Federal officers working on a tip, held up the outfit with others in the town of York, but secured no contraband.

The incident was staged while Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Tracy of Norway and his father, Rev. Olin H. Tracy, D. D. of Portland, were skimming home from attending a wedding in Massachusetts. The party was at the wheel and no doubt generous with the gas. Two men held up the joy riders among others and introduced evidence proving they represented Mr. Volstead's right arm.

Of course the car was as dry as a proverbial contribution box, but the officers didn't know that. They were after a Studebaker transporting booze and it mattered little whether the passengers were saints with sermons or sinners with shot guns.

The younger Tracy, with all frankness, revealed their identity and offered the keys of the city, figuratively speaking. No search was made and the party headed along toward Portland with a clear conscience, realizing the way of the transgressor is not paved with velvet.

Doris Stone is assistant in the dental office of Dr. C. H. Buck, South Paris. The mighty billboard on Main Street near Tannery Brook bridge has been removed and the lot will be improved by the town.

Lodge Notes

Mt. Hope Rebekah Lodge will hold its meeting, Friday evening. Work will be exemplified followed by a chaffing dish lunch in charge of Marion Johnson, Ruth Shaw, Ethelwyn Lapham, Mildred Hosmer, Frances Twitchell, Minnie Welch, Bertha Young, Charlotte Lovejoy, Maude Mixer and Blanche Andrews.

L. O. O. M. Notes
Work was conferred on one candidate at the last meeting.

All members are urged to be present next Friday night, as new work will be introduced for the degree team. Also to make plans for the winter work. This has been a prosperous year for the L. O. O. M.

The Daughters of Veterans are reminded of the full rehearsal, Saturday evening, at K. of P. hall at 7 o'clock prompt. Inspection takes place the 14th, and every officer and all members possible are urged to be present for the rehearsal.

Ma. Lilla Rice, Past Department President, entertained the Daughters of Veterans, Saturday evening, at her home at a Halloween party. The officers who exemplified the work in Portland at an annual Convention were guests for supper and the other members for the evening.

The house was decorated for the occasion, and lights were dim. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by a ghostly figure who designated where they should go, and another ghost escorted them through dark passages to a dimly lighted room, where a favor was chosen, and another little ghost showed them the way to the parlor. At the supper table, the favors were unwrapped and each one adorned herself with either a cap or some other decoration. It was a real Halloween menu of baked beans and brown bread, hot rolls, cabbage slaw, pickles, pumpkin pie, molasses doughnuts, cheese and coffee. During the supper, Mrs. Rice thanked the members for their assistance in Portland and read an original parody on the initiation. In the evening sociability reigned, and music was enjoyed on the victrola. In trying to pin the black cat's tail at the proper angle, Mrs. Vesta Smith, won the first prize and Mrs. Bertha Noyes won the consolation. "Her bump of location" did not assert itself. It was a most pleasant evening for all who attended.

Club Notes

The Veranda Club will meet Thursday evening at 7:30, Nov. 13, with Mrs. Charles Damon, Deering St.

Election Returns by Radio
Legion Hall was headquarters for men and women of all political faiths, Tuesday evening, when returns were received from Maine. Hamilton & Winslow installed the service. The telephone brought in local and state returns that created at least passing interest. Donald B. Pierce presided at the dials and connected with Schenectady, N. Y., and Springfield, Mass., according to the program broadcasted. Aside from local interference the returns arrived clear and crisp.

Another group was enlightened at the A. L. Clark Co., where reception was also good. As a rule radio fans received their own in the comfortable arm chair at home. Norway was quiet. The re-election of President Coolidge appeared certain.

"Pretty tame for election night" was the comment from a few old timers who strayed from the fireside. In the old days, say forty odd years ago, a presidential election was an occasion for male citizens to congregate in store nearest the railroad station, and absorb meagre reports tickled off in the Morse code. Participants feeling ran high and often the effects of red liquor from "long neckers" ran higher. Arguments and free-for-alls added jest, while shouting and hilarity increased or diminished according to the political make-up of the crowd.

On that evening venerable patriars occupied places of honor around the box stove to recall the days when General Harrison in the Hard Cider Campaign upset our country. Lies were swapped between bulletins and the old chaps made of themselves quite nifty boys, before "rheumatiz took hold."

Many can recall that some under a flickering kerosene light, there sat aged men with flowing beards dreaming over a clay pipe, or munching black B. L. while tobacco juice trickled down the chin to be strained through whiskers. Somehow their presence had a softening effect akin to reverence. The march of progress has erased all this, except at cross-road hamlets not in contact with modern innovations.

Another change—the crowing roosters and barbed wire head lines have passed from the daily papers. During the era mentioned, a barnyard cock invariably appeared over election news of importance. The crowing of the rooster was according to the political policy of a paper. When the family advisor appeared with chancier feet pointing skyward, the election was immediately conceded to the other side and deep gloom prevailed in that household.

In the words of an aged sage, "Them was good old days."

Your name and resilience printed on 200 sheets bond paper and 100 envelopes for $1.50 delivered. See ad. Send order to Advertiser, Norway, Me.

It is reported that the O. M. Cummings place on Danforth Street has been sold to a Portland party. The papers have not as yet been passed, but an agreement has been made.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

Nate Merrill—"Several years ago I learned a very fine remedy for a choked cow, which has stuck in my memory all though I may never have had a cow, particularly one that will choke. When a cow is choking, take fine cut tobacco, mix with enough molasses to make it adhere in a ball about the size of an egg, pull out the cow's tongue and push the tobacco as far down the throat as possible. The muscles will soon relax and out will come the article or substance that is choking the cow. The broom stick method has killed about half of them."

Winter is near at hand. The women are bringing in and cluttering up the center table with partridge berries, red alder plums and pine boughs.

THE FIRST CIVIL CASE

The first civil case was Leland J. Andrews vs. the town of Hartford, in which Andrews brought suit for payment of a thirty-one sheep presumably killed by dogs and wild animals during the season of 1923. A board of referees placed the damage at $893.00.

According to the defense, proper notice had not been given the selectmen and the number of sheep actually killed by dogs or wild animals was uncertain. The first carcass was found in August and due notice given. Several other bodies were found later until up to Oct. 1, twenty-four carcasses had been found from thirty-one sheep missing.

Due notice had been given according to the plaintiff.

Decision was reserved, with rights of appeal within thirty days after the decision had been mailed the parties. P. O. Purinton of Mechanic Falls and Judge Harry Manser of Auburn were attorneys for Mr. Andrews. Frederick Dyer of Portland represented the town of Hartford.

In the case of Edna D. Thompson vs. Leon G. Newcomb, both of Norway, for trespass, the act was admitted and the judge fixed the damages at one dollar.

The trouble started over a driveway between the two properties on Beal Street which gives access to the rear of the building owned and occupied by the defendant. Last April a team delivering wood to the defendant drove over the driveway, and turned around on a strawberry bed of the plaintiff. At that time the ground was frozen and covered with snow. It had been the practice for teams using the driveway to back out onto the street.

The plaintiff claimed damage and trespass at the time, which the defendant says he offered to pay, and ordered teams passing through the yard to back out and not turn for there was not sufficient room on his lot. Naturally the question of ownership of the driveway came into the argument. Deeds were produced in court to show that such a passage had been reserved in a transfer dating back several years. Mrs. Thompson was represented by Albert J. Stearns with Wilfred G. Conary for Mr. Newcomb.

On Saturday morning the contested divorce case of Millett vs. Millett was heard. Walter L. Gray and W. G. Conary appeared for Mr. Millett, the libellant, and A. J. Stearns, Esq., for Mrs. Wheeler for Mr. Millett. The libellant charged cruel and abusive treatment with a division of the property involved. The case revolved around the domestic life of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Millett, who have lived on a farm in Greenwood. Value of the place was about $4,000, with sixteen head of cattle valued at $800, six horses worth $600 and farming machinery placed at $300 or $400.

The Milletts have been married about ten years and lived on the farm eight years. Mr. Millett is admitted to be a hard working, industrious man, while Mrs. Millett is alleged to have loved pleasure with a great desire to attend social gatherings and dances. She alleged her husband used vile language and profanity toward her and even did physical violence. This trouble had been going on several years and there had been two separations and about three years ago and the last one the summer of 1923. Mr. Millett admitted using strong language at times, but denied calling his wife vile names and striking her. A man's name was brought into the case and this unmarried farmer appeared as one of the contributing causes for matrimonial troubles.

"We believe that happy and contented homes are the best possible insurance against the many evil influences which are at work in this country," said Mrs. Joseph S. Leach, Chairman of Home Extension Service of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in an address before its recent convention.

There is no kindergarten in your public schools, writes to the National Kindergarten Association, 8 West 40th Street, New York, N. Y., for advice, information and literature.

I. W. Holmes of Bethel, business manager of Gould's Academy Herald, was in town, Saturday, selling advertising space in that magazine.

Mrs. M. H. Pitts of Harrison was in town over the week end.

Miss Daisy Chase was organist at the Congregational church, Sunday morning.

EAST WATERFORD

B. G. McIntire and wife of Norway spent Saturday and Sunday with their brother and sister at Greenfield.

Mrs. Lawrence Marston has been ill with a cold. Mrs. Marston has recently had some teeth extracted and has been a great sufferer with her face. Doris Davis of South Paris is assisting her with her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Webster and children of Fryeburg were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McIntire.

Mrs. Lucy Bean and Miss Georgie Crockett of West Paris were guests of their niece, Mrs. Belle Marston, Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hilton and two children of Lewiston were recent guests of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Hilton.

Mrs. Burton Sanderson, Miss Nora McKinney and Miss Sawyer attended the Teachers' Convention at Bangor the past week.

Miss Lillian Brown of North Bridgton is visiting her cousin, Miss Clara Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jacobson, who have been visiting friends at Monson, returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kneeland had as guests, Sunday, their nephew, Clarence Kimball and wife and her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kimball and a Mr. Twitchell, all of Fryeburg, also a call from their daughter and family and Mrs. Imogene Lovejoy of Norway.

George Doe and family of Hall's Corner, Me., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Stevens, Sunday, also Guy Stevens, wife and two children of Portland and Mrs. Dora Haggatt and son of Norway.

Miss Gladys Hor of Lewiston, who has been visiting at Mrs. Stevens', returned to her home on Monday.

Mrs. Carrie Fields of North Bridgton is spending a few days with Mrs. Jennie Stevens. Mrs. Stevens, who has been very uncomfortable with a humor breaking out on her face and body, consulted a specialist in Portland, Monday. He pronounced it eczema. Their sister, Miss Helen Stevens, returned from her visit at Mechanic Falls, Sunday.

Hallowe'en
Invitations were received from the teachers and children to attend their Hallowe'en exercises, Friday afternoon, and a goodly number came.

After the usual school work, came the program consisting of singing, recitations, dialogues and music on the harmonica by Teddy Howe with encore. The parts were well taken and much enjoyed by all.

Then the fun began, with bobbing for apples, chewing the string for candy, then the nice treat of apples and several kinds of candy. With darkened windows, the Jack O' Lanterns were lighted which gave the room a weird look.

In the midst of all came the call "the school team's come" and the happy party broke up as the kiddies will remember their first Hallowe'en party.

"Picture Bill"

Theatre Manager Not a Bad Farmer

"Picture" Bill DeCroteau's wonder garden flourishes no more. He has demonstrated a theatrical man with energy but supposed to know little about farming, can produce vegetables in paying quantity. Bill has turned the laugh upon his critics at the Weary Club who prophesied dismal failure, and finished under the wire far ahead of the average garden plot farmer.

After listening patiently to many tales of woe rehearsed at the Weary Club sittings, "Picture Bill" told the box stove farmers in what resort he could make and carry on a surprise garden even though moving pictures were his trump card. Naturally a laugh went the rounds and the Rex Theatre man was considered a big joke.

Now Bill was not to be stumped. He hurried to Frank Beck and leased a plot 48x80 feet near the Norway Grange Hall. Fertilizer and seed were procured then Bill rolled up his sleeves and staged a rural serial. Up with old Sol every morning and grubbing far beyond the noon hour, was one of his daily dozens until the place resembled the fabled garden of Eden. Everything Bill touched went to vegetables. The family could not keep up with the produce when nature settled to real business. Neighbors, not so fortunate, were supplied without stint. Even with these reinforcements the garden forged ahead of William, the Miracle Worker, and the Weary Club gasped.

Mrs. Julius DeCroteau, mother of this second Luther Burbank, cooked and fried, boiled and pickled, while father Julius acted as chauffeur on the wheel barrow, hauling products from Eden to the cellar. This vegetable sheik kept a strict account of everything but will leave the matter of profits with the readers. His statement follows:

Root and land $10.00; seed $4.90; fertilizer $1.35; poles $1.00; labor not mentioned, figured as practical demonstration; total cost $17.25.

Products, 12 bunches radishes, 16 heads lettuce, 1 1/2 bu. peas, 4 1/2 bu. string beans (Love's), 1 1/2 bu. shelled beans, 630 cabbages from 10 hills, 16 bunches beets, 52 summer squashes, 6 1/2 bu. tomatoes from 36 plants, 1 bu. carrots, 3 1/2 bu. pole beans, (Kentucky Wonder), 23 doz. ears corn, (Yellow Bantam) 11 Hubbard squashes, average 7 pounds, 74 turnips (from 3 to 10 1/2 pounds), 17 watermelons (from 11 to 19 pounds), 12 pumpkins and 8 cantaloupes.

Probably some gardener in touch with the "going" price can tell the market value of the produce.

Picture Bill's Idea of Rest

William E. DeCroteau, for six years manager of Rex Theatre and Robinson Theatre at Oxford under his supervision, is taking a vacation of several months. His rest is not inaction, but a plunge into the theatrical whirlpool while producing musical comedy on big time, so called.

He is to represent financial interests that back shows of this kind on the road and is in New York City booking some twenty artists for the cast and chorus. Rehearsals will start in Boston, Nov. 10, and the first public performance on or about Nov. 27. Three comedies will be handled by the company which will play from one to three nights on a big circuit, including cities not smaller than Lewiston, Bangor or Portland. Mr. DeCroteau expects a weekly salary list of about $1,000 and approximately $800 more for travel and hotels. Expensive wardrobe plus elaborate scenery will be carried.

Mr. DeCroteau broke into the game at the age of nineteen years while assisting in a booking office in Boston. After conducting booking on his own account for a while, he jumped into vaudeville and has appeared in nearly every city east of the Mississippi. For a time he was publicity agent for Bob Orin and his famous productions. William knows the game from A to Z; from bill posting to acrobatics and will make good during his vacation on the road.

It is understood the genial manager has not burned the bridges behind him and may return to Norway after the troupe gives feverish rest. His children, Gene and Reba, will be in the care of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius DeCroteau, who will remain in Norway during the winter at least. Torrance Savage will also stay here to continue her studies at school. "Picture Bill," as he is known, will be missed by the movie fans and all wish him success.

E. A. Gammon and wife of Mechanic Falls, F. W. Sanborn, Mrs. Twitchell and Walter Smith of Norway had a chicken dinner at Crockett's in Raymond, Sunday. The Crockett's are increasing the popularity of their "Hotel-Farm" by an addition to the dining room and a half dozen more sleeping rooms. The work is well under way.

Several hundred salmon varying in size are in the hatchery pool at Raymond. The fish are to be seized, Thursday, Nov. 6th, commencing at 10 o'clock. We expect to be there as well as others if it don't rain.

Milleville and Crockett Ridge

Foster Jackson has been picking apples in Milleville. He fell from an apple tree and injured his back and broke several teeth. He is very lame and his mouth and teeth are very painful.

Mrs. A. G. Lovejoy has returned home from a visit at her daughter's, Mrs. A. F. Morrill's.

Asa Frost from Norway Lake was in the neighborhood calling on relatives last week.

Alfred Merrill of Mason visited at G. S. Westleigh's one evening, recently.

Percy Walker has finished picking apples at Red Oak Cottage Farm. He had around five hundred barrels in all, and plans to set out more trees in the spring.

Mrs. Frank Dudley of South Paris was in this vicinity, recently, canvassing for nursery stock. She is agent for the La Pointe Nursery Co. and has good success.

G. S. Westleigh recently bought three Jersey heifers, two pure bred and one grade, of Dana Morrill of West Bethel. Harry Millett has been suffering with rheumatism in his limbs but is better now.

Stop, look and listen and you'll live longer.

BETHEL

Mrs. E. F. Peterkin and daughter, Mrs. Marion W. Philbrook of Bangor were in Portland, Monday, Oct. 27.

Perry Lapham has moved into his recently purchased house on Clark street. The marriage of Irving L. Carver of Bethel and Miss Ruth Homstead of Skowhegan was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Homstead, the 22nd. Relatives and a few intimate friends were present. They will reside in Bethel where Mr. Carver has been located as a merchant for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Badger of Portsmouth N. H., were in town, recently.

D. B. Smith and his aunt, Mrs. A. E. K. Grover, went to Fairfield, recently, to visit Mr. Smith's brother, Barton Smith, who is receiving treatment at the sanitarium. They went by way of Bangor, returning through Winthrop where they spent a few hours with friends of Mrs. Grover. They found good roads all the way. Mr. Smith found his brother in rather bad shape but improvement is hoped for.

Adelaide Ramsdell is at North Waterford for a time.

Several of the teachers went to Bangor to the Convention.

A Halloween social was held at the Methodist church.

The Ladies' Aid was entertained by Mrs. Scott Robertson.

Mrs. Melissa Tuell will have charge of theingham house this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyker will occupy her house at the head of Broad street.

Mike Marshall will lumber at Sunday River, Newry, this winter.

Fred Holt and family of South Paris were at his father's, Albion Holt's, recently.

Friends from Elliott were recent guests of the Rev. C. B. Collins and family, recently.

A meeting of the Chataqua guarantors was held at the home of Dr. Tibbets.

Mrs. Mary McVail had another shock Thursday, and is in a serious condition. She is nearly ninety-two years of age, a sister of Mrs. Angella Mason Clark of this place. Mrs. McVail is being cared for by Mrs. Edith Grover.

D. R. Smith was at Locke Mills, Saturday, on a business trip.

Mrs. Rowley is assisting in the home of Paul Thurston for the winter.

Benjamin Kimball will be the caretaker at the Hammond house in Mayville.

Mrs. Harry Brown will spend some time with her brother, Alton Richardson, in Durham, N. H.

We understand that Clyde Bean and wife are on their way from Iowa. Their daughter, Abigail, is teaching in Shelburne, N. H.

Hunters are bringing in game. Bears must be numerous in Oxford County.

Rev. Stanley Manning of Gardiner preached at the Universalist church last Sunday.

Rev. Fred Moore of Brookline, Mass., is expected to give a lecture at the Universalist church on Nov. 7 in the evening. Subject, "European Conditions and the Relation to America."

Rev. S. T. Achenbach has just returned from Providence, R. I. He attended a conference.

Mrs. S. S. Greenleaf is spending a short time with her people in Chesterville.

Mrs. Linnie Abbot will close her private hospital and take a much needed rest.

J. S. Hutchins, Manager of the A. & P. Store, has been ill but is improving.

S. S. Greenleaf has purchased a number of ponies. Some weigh over nine hundred pounds. Frank Flint purchased one for his mail route. Mr. Greenleaf has sold quite a number of the bunch and the boys are having fun exercising the ones left. He bought them of a man in Denmark, this state.

E. F. Peterkin has installed electric lights and now has in his barn an up to date milking machine.

D. E. Smith was among others that motored to Gorham, N. H., calling on his sister, Mrs. W. E. Cummings, and family.

There were no swear words in the Indian language until white men came to this country. Why are white men so proud anyway? Nearly every mean trick played by aborigines anywhere on earth was taught them by white men.

BEFORE BABIES WERE BORN

Mrs. Oswald Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Girardville, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my last two babies came. It keeps me in perfect health and I am on my feet getting meals and doing all my housework until an hour before the baby is born. A friend told me to take it and I have used ten bottles since I heard about it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound whenever I can. Just yesterday a friend was telling me how miserable she felt, and I said, 'If you start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's you will feel fine. Now she is taking it.'—Mrs. P. J. OSWALD, JR., 406 W. Ogden St., Girardville, Pa.

Mrs. Nicola Paluzzi Says
Mishawaka, Indiana.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness before my babies were born. I was weak and tired out all the time and it helped me. When I had inward inflammation the doctor treated me, but it did not help me, so I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and it helped me right away. I will always have your medicines."—Mrs. NICOLA PALUZZI, 415 E. Broadway, Mishawaka, Indiana.

NORTH BRIDGTON

Bridgton Academy

Principal and Mrs. Sampson, with Miss C. Adelaide Merriman, Dora Lincoln, Mabelle Hunt and John Berry motored to Lewiston to attend the Bates-Bowdoin football game, continuing the trip to Portland for a theatre party.

The sophomores entertained at a social in Ingalls Hall, Thursday evening. Eva Bean went to her home in East Otisfield to attend a social in honor of four young men of that vicinity, who for exemplary conduct while in Oxford High School received books.

John Berry, a former sub-master in the Academy, and now principal of Denmark High School was a week end guest of principal and Mrs. Sampson.

School group, football squad and track team photographs were taken Thursday by Frye of Portland.

Frederick Davis of Millinocket, a senior, is playing Saturday afternoons at the Opera House, Bridgton. During the summer he played in a theatre in his home town. He is planning to continue his musical studies and will, without doubt, attain success, as he already is considered an exceptionally fine pianist.

Clarence Irving, Harry and Harvey Strout passed the week end at their Portland homes.

Bridgton Academy defeated Hebron Academy's track team over a two and one-half mile course the 22nd, by a score of 24 to 23. After one of the most thrilling finishes ever witnessed here, Westcott of Hebron and George Morong battled the final two hundred yards, neck and neck, Westcott just passing Morong at the wire and winning first honor. Others of the Black and Grays won points to carry the higher score. The score was as follows:

1. Westcott, Hebron.
2. George Morong, Bridgton.
3. McKnight, Bridgton.
4. Macroe, Hebron.
5. Lube, Bridgton.
6. Graham, Bridgton.
7. Shaw, Hebron.
8. Hersey, Bridgton.
9. Jordan, Hebron.
10. R. Morong, Bridgton.
11. Rice, Hebron.
12. Chesboro, Bridgton.

Biddeford High School's undefeated football squad won a 45-0 victory over Bridgton Academy, Oct. 25, on Biddeford's grounds. The Black and Grays knew they were up against a hard proposition when they left the green campus, for most of their team are new men who had never played football until this fall. But despite the long ride in a truck and intense heat, 80 degrees, they worked hard to hold down the score and same home ready to tackle Gardiner High School, November 1.

The Woman's Club held its first meeting with Mrs. Bessie Wells Kendall, Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 28.

Dr. Gehring of Portland was here in consultation with Dr. Hebb, owing to the illness of Mrs. M. R. Wilbur. Mrs. Wilbur shows slight improvement.

Stone walls from the old Chadbourne place on the hill are being hauled and buried to form a nice lawn around Mrs. Abbie Chadbourne's attractive new home. Mrs. Abbie Mead Sawyer of Foxboro, Mass., who is visiting at her old home on the Ridge, has been a caller in the village.

Philip W. Wilbur spent the week end in Woodford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill were among North Bridgton people who enjoyed the most excellent community supper at So. Waterford, Friday evening, Oct. 31.

Mrs. Virginia W. Hagar was a week end guest of Mrs. Augusta and Ethel Monroe at South Waterford.

Mrs. Flint, who was matron in the boys' dormitory for several years, is stopping for a while with the family of Daniel Curtis.

Mrs. F. O. Chadbourne, assisted by other members of the Church Circle, served an excellent supper to a large company, Wednesday.

BRIDGTON

At the Methodist church, Sunday, Oct. 26, there was an address by Rev. E. E. Jackman of Lowell, Mass., who was present in the interest of the Educational Movement, which is on in the Portland and Augusta Districts now, in which a drive is being made for funds for Boston University Theological School and Kent's Hill. Mr. Jackman's theme was "The Power of Knowledge." In the evening Rev. John M. Arters, Dist. Supt., of the Portland District, was present in the interests of the same movement and gave a most interesting address illustrated by stereopticon slides. There was singing by the men's choir in the morning and by the girls' choir in the evening.

At the Congregational Church, Mrs. Robert Treat Whitehouse was present in the evening and spoke to a good sized audience on "Women's New Freedom. What is she doing with it?" There was singing by the girls' choir.

The first dance of the season was held Oct. 30, by the Senior class, Bridgton High School, at Moose Hall. The hall was decorated in the Hallowe'en effect. Music was furnished by Norton's Orchestra and there was a good crowd present.

The Royal Neighbors of Bridgton entertained the Victory Camp Royal Neighbors of Norway at their regular meeting at Moose Hall, Oct. 27. A chicken pie supper was served at 6:30 after which the regular business meeting was held, followed by an entertainment. The entertainment consisted of piano duets by the Misses Verne and Louise Gray, Readings by Mrs. Ruth Sanborn, vocal solos by Mrs. Phil Staley and harmonica solos by Mrs. Lottie Morrison, with Mrs. Lena O'Brien at the piano. Dancing followed the entertainment with piano music by Samuel Walsh.

The members of the Highland Grange Sewing Circle met with Brother Henry and Mrs. Seavey at South Bridgton, Tuesday, Oct. 28, in an all day session. A bountiful dinner was served at noon, and the afternoon was spent with sewing. A lot of work was accomplished towards the annual sale which will be held sometime in December.

Mrs. C. C. Spratt, wife of the late C. C. Spratt, former principal of Bridgton Academy, and who has been at her summer home at North Bridgton, since early in the spring, left Thursday for her home at Providence, R. I.

The Rebekah Lodge observed Past Noble Grand's Night, Tuesday evening, October 28th.

The South Bridgton Grange, worked the third and fourth degrees on four candidates at their regular meeting, Friday evening. Highland Grange of Bridgton and Crooked River Grange of Bolster's Mills were special guests at this meeting and several other granges in this vicinity were represented.

A large number of Bridgton sportsmen are going to the northern woods this fall and bring back their full quota of deer, partridges and other game.

The Harmony Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon and evening by Mrs. Alice Morrison at the Ingalls cottage in "The Ferns" on Highland Lake. A delicious supper was served and the day and evening spent socially. Eight members of the Club were present.

EAST FRYEBURG

Mountain Aqua House is being newly shingled. A crew of carpenters are doing the work.

Wm. Berry was in Portland on business for several days the past week. Wm. B.
Warren returned with him.

The Grange has put in some cobble stone steps at their hall. John Gilman was the mason in charge.

Twenty-six members of the Grange went to West Baldwin, Tuesday evening, and worked the 3rd and 4th degrees. The hall was appropriately decorated for Halloween, shocks of corn, cats, 14 large Jack O' Lanterns lighted by electricity. A fine oyster stew was enjoyed.

It was certainly a most enjoyable time.
Forty-four Grange members attended a fine meeting at Fryeburg Center, Saturday evening. This week the Grange entertained Pomona on Thursday and worked the 1st and 2nd degrees at home, and went to Sweden to confer the 3rd and 4th degrees on Saturday evening for Sweden Grange.

and Helen Pike and Marcia Berry attended the football game, Fryeburg Academy vs. Kennett High, at Conway, Friday.

Most of the hunters at the Golden Bros.
camps have gone home without getting any deer.

The Halloween social given by the school at the schoolhouse, Friday evening, was much enjoyed by all present.

Samuel Richardson and family visited friends at Kezar Falls, Sunday.

John Burke has moved to Parsonsfield, where he is going to work for Ed. Fadden at the mill.

H. D. Harnden & Son are getting out a large quantity of dressing for next year's planting.

Eben P. True was at his farm over Sunday.

KEZAR FALLS

Cymbid Hughes, has recently been the guest of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. T.
Norton.

Mrs. Smith, one of the teachers in Porter High School, Margaret Chellis, Theodore Fox, Elton Merrifield and Allen
Chellis were among those attending the Bowdoin and University of Maine game last Saturday afternoon.

Rally Day

Last Sunday was observed as Rally Day in the M. E. church. In the morning Rev.
J. H. Libby preached an exceedingly fine sermon from the words, "Do Not Sin Against the Child." In addition to the usual song service, Mrs. Jeannie Chapman and Iva Ridlon sang a beautiful duet. The Sunday School hour was much enjoyed and consisted of speaking and singing from the following program:

The Ladies' Circle met last week with Mrs. Sidney B. Stanley, a number of ladies were present. Mrs. Frank Brooks will entertain the Tuesday following.

The L. M. R. C. held a Halloween social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T.
Norton. The decorations were in yellow and black with witches and cats galore. The supper served at six-thirty consisted of cold meats, rolls, salads, pies, doughnuts and coffee.

and Mrs. Fred Dunn, are attending Norway High School. They drive back and forth with the Ford.

George Merrill, who has been at Fred
Dunn's this fall, is now in company with Chandler Merrill on a trapping expedition.

Fred Dunn's boiler turned out to be a carbuncle. He has had it lanced once, and it is very painful.

R. L. Cummings has two men packing apples at Merle Jack's.

Most of the men and women this way went to vote, Nov. 4.

Arthur Meserve has commenced work for E. G. Dunn, packing apples.

BATES—WEST PARIS

Harvest Supper and Sale
The Federated Ladies' Aid held their annual Harvest supper, sale and entertainment last Thursday. The sale tables were arranged in the dining room. On the left were, first, a long table of vegetables and fruit, beautiful to see, and then the apron and fancy work table decorated with autumn leaves and a windmill quilt hanging on the wall behind it. The Dorcas class occupied two tables on the right of the entrance, the first was decorated in pink and light green with the name of the class across the front, while the young ladies, attending the candy and ice cream wore pink and green caps. The second table was laden with plants and bulbs.

The sale was well patronized as was also the Harvest supper.

The entertainment in the evening consisted mostly of music. Mrs. Stella Burnham and a ladies' quartette from South Paris gave two selections, "Forget Me Not" and "We're Growing Old Together," accompanied by Mrs. Morton. A vocal solo, "Tired, Tired World," a vocal solo, "Will You Marry Me?" by Ruth Graves; a vocal duet, "Goodbye Summer," by Miss Graves and Mrs. Burnham; a piano duet, Mrs. Burnham and Mrs. Wheeler; an accordion solo by Miss Graves accompanied by Mrs. Burnham, all of which were successful.

Local talent which was interspersed consisted of readings by Mrs. Alice Young and A. T. Hollis, violin solo by Sylvia McKee accompanied by Margaret Lane, all with encores, and vocal solos by two little Finn girls, Enni Lillamanta, six years old, and her sister, five years old, who were very cunning and sweet. The entertainment was fine and has received many compliments.

The whole affair was very successful and a good sum netted for the Aid.

West Paris Grange will have an all day meeting next Saturday with a covered dish dinner. The sisters have two quilts to tack in the forenoon and a short program in the afternoon.

The Friendly Class of the Universalist Sunday School entertained their friends at a business meeting in Good Will Hall, Friday afternoon. The hall was decorated with rugs and Hallway's suggestions and potted plants. A program of the opening exercises and business, Mrs. Tait, wife of Dr. Tait, gave an interesting talk on her travels in Europe. Refreshments of tea and crackers were served.

Arthur Flavin returned to his work last week, Wednesday, after a five months' vacation at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Flavin and family. His first stopping place was Washington, D. C. He expects to be in Egypt with a party by Christmas time.

The Oxford District Mission Circle church this week, Wednesday, Mrs. H. B. Smith of Mechanic Falls, honorary president, Mrs. H. A. Markley of Auburn, Supt. and Mrs. Persis Shedd of Portland, who has State and National office, were the speakers.

Rev. Stanley Manning of Augusta, State Superintendent of Universalist churches, will preach here, Sunday, Nov. 16.

A very interesting illustrated lecture was given at the Federated church last Sunday evening, the subject was "The Achievement of the Five Year Centenary Movement." The pictures were fine. The meeting was led by the pastor, Rev. E. H. Stovel, who added words of interest and commendation. The lecture was read by Mrs. Lena S. Herrick.

Mrs. H. R. Tuell entertained the Silver Gray Club at dinner last week in honor of the oldest member, Mrs. Esther A. Tuell, who went to Portland to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Irving Boyker. The elderly ladies, they are, Mrs. Columbia Dunham, Mrs. Savina Devine, Mrs. Esther A. Tuell, Mrs. Esther B. Tuell, Mrs. Annie Willis, Mrs. Martha Dunham, Mrs. Elvess Dennen and Mrs. Cynthia Curtis. They spend a week at camp at Locke Mills each year and have many other pleasant gatherings.

Lula Herrick, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Herrick, was taken to the C. M. G. Hospital, Sunday, where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis, Monday morning. The operation was successful and she was doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. Herrick stayed down with her until Wednesday night.

Dan Hill is ill and has Lydia Ross for nurse. Miss Ross has been at the hospital in Portland and this is her first case.

NORTH PARIS

Reception

A reception was held in the Community Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Leon Harlow of Mechanic Falls, recently married.

A nice lot of presents were received, some of them were, 1-2 dozen silver knives and forks and spoons, electric iron, large pyrex baking dish, 2 pie plates and cake dish, 1-2 dozen fruit plates, deep pie plates, also pair of bath towels, 1 pair of towels, quilt top, money and other things. The silver was from friends of North and West Paris and baking dish from other friends. A short program was enjoyed and ice cream, cake and crackers were served. Games were played. The hall was prettily decorated.

Many were much surprised on getting up to find the ground covered with snow, Tuesday.

Locals

Miss Frances Carter of Bethel was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Longley, Sunday. She has closed her home at Middle Intervale, Bethel, for the winter and will visit with Mrs. Roger Davis at South Paris several weeks.

Ed. Cummings' residence is nearly ready for occupancy. Extensive grading is being done on the lawn with numerous cement walks in place. Cement side walks have been laid within his boundaries on Deering and Pearl streets with a driveway into his garage. Heat has been installed in the garage and connected with the system of oil heating in his house.

A Norway widower said he married his sister-in-law because he didn't want to go through the ordeal of breaking in another mother-in-law.

The world is much sillier now than it used to be. "Yes, We Have No Bananas" is a silly song but there are others. Do you remember in the good old sensible old-fashioned days when we used to sing "Ta Ra Ra Boom De Ay" and "Tut Tut Wouldn't Buy Me a Bowwow"?

Don't neglect to pay for your paper before the paid up time expires. It saves bother to do so. Notice is sent when the paid up time expires. The paper will be stopped unless money is received.
